COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT ENTERED INTO at the City of Toronto, in the Province of Ontario, as of December 07, 2017.

- between –

THE GOVERNING COUNCIL OF THE UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

(hereinafter called "the Employer")

- and -

THE CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES, Local 1230 (Full-Time and Part-Time)

(hereinafter called "the Union")

ARTICLE 1: RECOGNITION AND COVERAGE

1:01 The Employer recognizes the Canadian Union of Public Employees and its Local 1230 as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent for:

The University of Toronto Library: all non-professional employees of the University of Toronto Libraries at the St. George Campus working under the control and direction of the Chief Librarian of the University of Toronto, save and except University of Toronto students hired on a casual basis under the terms of the Collective Agreement (Student Casual) between CUPE Local 1230 and the Governing Council of the University of Toronto, supervisors and persons above the rank of Supervisor, Bibliographers (selector), and Bibliographic Associates II and Archivists.

The words "employee" or "employees" used in this Agreement shall mean any or all of the full-time and part-time regular employees in the Bargaining Unit except where the context otherwise provides.

ARTICLE 2: GENERAL PURPOSE

2:01 The purpose of this Collective Agreement is to establish an orderly collective bargaining relationship between the Employer and employees represented by the Union.

ARTICLE 3: RESERVATION OF MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

3:01 The Union acknowledges that it is the right of the Employer to:

- a) maintain order and efficiency;
- b) hire, classify, transfer, promote, demote, lay off, discipline, suspend, or discharge employees;
- c) establish and enforce policies of general application, rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of the Agreement governing the conduct of the employees and generally to manage and operate the University of Toronto.

The Employer agrees that these rights will be exercised in a manner consistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 4: NO STRIKES OR LOCKOUTS

4:01 The Employer undertakes that there will not be a lockout as defined in the Labour Relations Act during the term of this Agreement. The Union undertakes that there will be no strike as defined in the Labour Relations Act during the term of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 5: NO DISCRIMINATION

5:01 The University and the Union agree to uphold the Ontario Human Rights Code and will not under any circumstances permit employment practices and procedures in contravention of it.

5:02 The University and Union agree that there shall be no discrimination against employees with respect to terms and conditions of employment because of race, ancestry, place of origin, sex, gender orientation, gender identity, gender expression, religious belief, colour, ethnic origin, mother tongue, marital status, family status, political affiliation or belief, citizenship, sexual orientation, disability, age, or record of offences, as those terms are defined in the Ontario Human Rights Code (if applicable), subject to the Ontario Human Rights Code provisions related to bona fide occupational qualification.

5:03 The University and the Union are committed to equal opportunity in employment for women, aboriginal people, people with disabilities, and people who because of their race, colour, sexual orientation or gender orientation have been traditionally disadvantaged in Canada. The University and the Union are committed to employment equity and to achieving and maintaining a workforce representative of those pools of qualified individuals available for recruitment and promotion by the University.

Workplace Harassment

5:04 The University will provide an environment where employees are not subjected to workplace harassment. Employees will not engage in workplace harassment. In assessing whether workplace harassment may have occurred, the definitions and standards set out in the Occupational Health and Safety Act and the University's Workplace Harassment Program (including the University's Human Resources Guideline on Civil Conduct, and the University's Guideline for Employees on Concerns and Complaints Regarding Prohibited Discrimination and Discriminatory Harassment), as they exist from time to time, although they do not form part of the Collective Agreement, shall be considered, including by an arbitrator in any arbitration pursuant to this section. The University will notify the Union when any substantive changes are made to the Human Resources Guidelines on Civil Conduct and at the request of the Union will meet to discuss such changes. For clarity, the current Occupational Health and Safety Act defines "workplace harassment" as: "engaging in a course of vexatious comment or conduct against a worker in a workplace that is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome."

For clarity, workplace harassment may occur while on University of Toronto premises and in work-related activities or social events occurring off-campus. For clarity, workplace harassment that occurs through electronic means is covered by this Article.

An employee may file a grievance alleging a course of conduct amounting to workplace harassment if, after the University has exhausted any applicable internal steps to respond to the situation, the employee is dissatisfied with the outcome or if, after 45 days have elapsed from the date the written complaint was brought to the attention of the University, identifying the conduct alleged to constitute workplace harassment, the University has not provided the employee with a response to the complaint. Such grievance will be filed at Step 3 (Three) of the grievance procedure. If not resolved at Step 3 (Three), the parties may agree to mediation or facilitation before an agreed upon mediator or facilitator before arbitration takes place. The mediation or facilitation will be confidential and without prejudice to the rights of either Party.

During any internal steps taken to resolve the situation, employees shall have the right to be accompanied by a Union Representative.

Sexual Violence and Sexual Harassment

5:05 Sexual harassment shall be considered discrimination under Article 5:01 of this Collective Agreement.

5:06 The University will provide an environment where employees are not subjected to sexual violence and sexual harassment. Employees will not engage in sexual violence and sexual harassment. In assessing whether sexual violence or sexual harassment may have occurred, the definitions and standards set out in the Ontario Human Rights Code, the Occupational Health and Safety Act and the University's Policy on Sexual Violence and Sexual Harassment, as they exist from time to time, although they do not form part of the Collective Agreement, shall be considered, including by an arbitrator in any arbitration pursuant to this section.

For clarity, the University's current Policy on Sexual Violence and Sexual Harassment defines "sexual violence" as meaning: "any sexual act or act targeting a person's sexuality, gender identity or gender expression, whether the act is physical or psychological in nature, that is committed, threatened or attempted against a person without the person's consent, and includes Sexual Assault, Sexual Harassment, stalking, indecent exposure, voyeurism, and sexual exploitation."

For clarity, the current Ontario Human Rights Code provides that "[e]very person who is an employee has a right to freedom from harassment in the workplace because of sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression by his or her employer or agent of the employer or by another employee." For further clarity, the current Ontario Human Rights Code defines harassment as "engaging in a course of vexatious comment or conduct that is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome". For further clarity, the University's current Policy on Sexual Violence and Sexual Harassment defines "sexual harassment" as including: "any sexual solicitation or advance made by a person in a position to confer, grant or deny a benefit or advancement to the person where the person making the solicitation or advance knows or ought reasonably to know that it is unwelcome. Sexual harassment also includes a reprisal or a threat of reprisal for the rejection of a sexual solicitation or advance, where the reprisal is made or threatened by a person in a position to confer, grant or deny a benefit or advancement to the person."

5:07 Employees making a report under the University's Policy on Sexual Violence and Sexual Harassment shall have the right to be accompanied by a Union Representative at any stage of the process.

5:08 The time limit for making a report under the University's Policy on Sexual Violence and Sexual Harassment or filing a grievance alleging sexual harassment under this Collective Agreement shall be no longer than twelve (12) months after the occurrence of the matter that is the subject of the report/grievance. The parties may agree to extend the time limit for filing a grievance in cases where unusual circumstances beyond the employee's control prevented the employee from grieving within the time limit.

A grievance alleging sexual violence or sexual harassment shall be filed at Step 3. The Executive Director, Labour Relations (or designate) will give a written decision to the Union within sixty (60) working days of receipt of the written grievance. If the grievance remains unresolved, the Union may refer the grievance to arbitration pursuant to Article 14 of this Collective Agreement.

5:09 No information relating to the grievor's personal background or lifestyle shall be admissible during the grievance or arbitration process.

5:10 An employee who makes a report of sexual violence or sexual harassment may request, through the Union, to discontinue contact with the respondent. Every effort shall be made to separate the parties in their employment relationship, without the complainant suffering any penalty. The University and the Union agree to treat requests to discontinue contact as confidential to those directly involved.

- 5:11 Witnesses who give information and/or evidence in a complaint of sexual violence or harassment shall suffer no penalty or reprisal.
- 5:12 In the event the University decides to investigate a Report of sexual violence and/or sexual harassment under the Policy on Sexual Violence and Sexual Harassment, where both the Complainant and the Respondent are CUPE 1230 members, both the Complainant and the Respondent shall be entitled to raise an objection to the University's choice of investigator on the basis of procedural fairness with respect to the choice of investigator, within six (6) working days of being notified of the choice of investigator. The Complainant or Respondent making such objection shall provide the reasons and grounds therefor. The University shall give due consideration to all such objections and respond in writing within four (4) working days of receiving the objection. In its response, the University shall either replace the investigator or provide the rationale for the University's decision not to replace the investigator. All objections and related correspondence and decisions will be retained for the record.

Racial Discrimination

- 5:13 An employee who files a grievance under the Collective Agreement alleging that the employee has been discriminated against because of race contrary to Article 5:02 may, if the employee chooses, meet with the University's Anti-Racism and Cultural Diversity Officer prior to Step 1 of the grievance procedure and may be accompanied by a Union Representative if the employee so chooses. Thereafter an employee may resume the grievance process.

General Harassment

- 5:14 The parties agree that employees will neither engage in nor be subject to threats of physical abuse or physical harm.

No Reprisal

- 5:15 The University and the Union agree that there will be no intimidation, discrimination, interference, restraint or coercion exercised or practiced by either of them or their representatives because of an employee's membership or non-membership in the Union, because of an employee's activity or lack of activity in the Union, or because of an employee filing or not filing a grievance pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement.

Further, every employee has a right to a workplace free of harassment, discrimination, reprisal or retaliation. Accordingly, every employee may bring forward, provide information regarding, assist, or otherwise be involved in the resolution of a complaint without fear of retaliation or reprisal, including but not limited to disciplinary action or discharge, whether that complaint is brought forward through a grievance under the Collective Agreement or a complaint in accordance with another University Policy or Guideline, provided that the employee is not acting in bad faith or in a manner that is vexatious or otherwise clearly improper. For clarity, there will be no reprisals against any employee who brings forward a complaint of harassment and/or discrimination within the meaning of Article 5 of this Collective Agreement provided that they are not acting in bad faith or in a manner that is vexatious or otherwise clearly improper. Both Respondents and Complainants shall be made aware of this Article.

Any allegation(s) of reprisal or retaliation may be the subject of a grievance commencing at Step 2 (Two) of the Grievance Procedure.

ARTICLE 6: NEGOTIATING COMMITTEE

General

6:01 For the purpose of negotiations between the Parties and as provided in and pursuant to Articles 6:02, 39:02 and 39:03 (Full-Time and Part-Time), the Employer shall recognize a Negotiating Committee of the Union composed of not more than three (3) Bargaining Unit employees and the President of the Local, who have completed their probationary period.

The Employer agrees that the three (3) Bargaining Unit employees and the President of the Local will suffer no loss of regular straight time pay when they would have otherwise been at work.

National Representative

6:02 The Negotiating Committee shall be entitled to have present and be represented by a representative of the Canadian Union of Public Employees at all negotiation meetings between the Union and the Employer which are held pursuant to Articles 39:02 and 39:03. Time Off.

Time Off

- a. The Full-Time employees constituting the Union Bargaining Committee shall be given time off during working hours without loss of pay while actually attending such negotiation meetings with the Employer.
- b. Full-Time employees constituting the Union Bargaining Committee shall each be granted as preparation time one-half (1/2) day off with pay for each year of the term of the Collective Agreement to be renewed.
- c. The Employer agrees to pay any Part-Time member of the Bargaining Unit Negotiating Committee seven and one-quarter (7¼) hours' pay at their regular wage rate for attending meetings to negotiate amendments to the Collective Agreement.
- d. Any Part-Time member of the Bargaining Unit Negotiating Committee shall be granted as preparation time, one half (1/2) day off with pay at three and two-thirds (3 2/3) hours' pay for each year of the term of the Collective Agreement to be renewed.
- e. The Union will provide a minimum of five (5) full working days' advance notice for time off provisions as specified under Article 6:03, paragraphs a, b, and d.

ARTICLE 7: PAID LEAVE

University Paid Leave

7:01 Up to a total of eight (8) days per month with pay will be granted as leave to Union Officials as designated by the Union for the purpose of conducting union business pertaining to either the Full-Time and Part-Time or Student Casual Bargaining Units. Arrangements for such time off shall be made by the Union President in consultation with the Library Manager of Human Resources. The Union will provide a minimum of five (5) full working days' advance notice for such leaves. It is agreed and understood that such leave shall be used exclusively for the business of the Library Bargaining Units. If not used, no portion of this leave may be carried over to the next month.

Union Paid Leave

7:02 From time to time, the Union may request leave (to be paid by the Union) for Union Officials. Arrangements for such time off shall be made by the Union President in consultation with the Library

Manager of Human Resources. The Union will endeavor to provide as much advance notice as possible. Such leaves are subject to management approval and will not be unreasonably denied.

University Business Leave

7:03 The Employer may, from time to time, request the Union to attend meeting(s) and/or working groups to discuss workplace issues concerning CUPE 1230 members. In requesting Union presence, the Employer will endeavor to provide as much notice as possible, to outline the nature of the meeting, to outline the number of Union Representative(s) requested and to provide the time, location and anticipated duration of the meeting. Union Representatives on University Business Leave shall not suffer any loss of pay or benefits as a result of this leave. This leave shall not be used to substitute for leaves specified in Articles 7.01 or 7.02.

Arbitration Leave

7:04 The Employer agrees that the President, the Chief Union Steward, the Steward and the grievor involved in the processing of a grievance shall not suffer any loss of pay or benefits for the time involved attending arbitration or mediation hearings. It is understood no payment for time lost shall be made for attendance at such hearings to Union witnesses.

ARTICLE 8: UNION REPRESENTATION - STEWARDS AND CHIEF UNION STEWARD

8:01 No individual employee or group of employees shall undertake to represent the Union at meetings with the Employer without proper authorization of the Union or as established by this Agreement. In order that this may be carried out, the Union will supply the Employer with the names of its officers. Similarly, the Employer will supply the Union with a list of its supervisory or other personnel with whom the Union may be required to transact business.

8:02 In order to provide an orderly and speedy procedure for the settling of grievances, the Employer acknowledges the right of the Union to appoint or elect Stewards who are employees of the Library, whose duties shall be to assist any employee whom the Steward represents in preparing and in presenting the employee's grievance in accordance with the grievance procedure.

8:03 Stewards will request leave from their supervisor before leaving their work assignment to deal with a grievance, and will report back to their supervisor on returning to work. The Union acknowledges that the Union Stewards have ongoing duties to perform for the Employer, and undertakes that Stewards will not absent themselves unreasonably in attending to grievances of employees. In consideration of the Union's acknowledgement and undertaking, the cost of compensating Stewards for time spent in handling grievances of employees will be borne by the Employer. Such compensation shall not extend beyond normal working hours.

11:01 An employee having a complaint which may become a grievance arising out of the interpretation, application, administration, or alleged violation of the Collective Agreement will first take up the complaint within fifteen (15) working days after the occurrence of the matter which is the subject of the complaint with the employee's Supervisor, who will attempt to resolve it. Should the complaint fail to be resolved, the employee has the right to bring a Union Steward who may then attempt to solve the complaint with the Supervisor and the employee. If the complaint remains unresolved, the employee may file a grievance at Step One of the Grievance Procedure.

Step One

11:02 If the grievance is not resolved at the complaint stage, it shall be summarized in writing on an employee grievance form (Appendix B) provided by the University, and signed by the employee involved and the employee's Steward, and submitted to the Supervisor by the Union Steward. A meeting shall be arranged between the Department Head and the Chief Union Steward within five (5) working days of receiving the grievance. If the grievance is not settled at this meeting, then the Union may notify the Director of Labour Relations in writing within a further period of five (5) working days that it intends to proceed to arbitration as hereafter set out.

ARTICLE 13: POLICY OR GROUP GRIEVANCE

13:01 A grievance of the Employer, or a policy or group grievance of the Union which is distinguished from an individual employee's grievance, must be sent to the Director of Labour Relations, or to the National Representative of the Union, as the case may be, within fifteen (15) working days after the occurrence of the matter which is the subject of the grievance. The Director of Labour Relations or designate together with the Chief Librarian or designate, shall meet with the National Representative of the Union or designate, within ten (10) working days. If the grievance is not settled at this meeting then either Party may notify the other Party in writing within a further period of five (5) working days that it intends to proceed to arbitration. The notice of intention to proceed to arbitration shall contain the details of the grievance, a statement of the exact matter in dispute and a statement of the relief sought at arbitration.

ARTICLE 14: MEDIATION / ARBITRATION

- 14:01 The Parties are committed to the early settlement of grievances and as such mutually agree that the process of grievance mediation is a valuable tool in arriving at mutually agreeable grievance settlements. In this regard the Parties agree that by mutual agreement on a "case-by-case" basis, grievances may be referred to grievance mediation prior to the grievance being heard by a sole arbitrator as set out in this Collective Agreement. In such circumstances the Parties shall by mutual agreement select the grievance mediator and they shall jointly and equally bear the fees and the expenses of the grievance mediator.
- 14:02 If the grievance is not settled at Step 3 (Three), either Party may notify the other within a further period of ten (10) working days after receiving the written reply that it intends to proceed to arbitration. The notice of intention to proceed to arbitration shall contain the details of the grievance, a precise statement of the matter in dispute, and a statement of the actual remedy sought by the Party from a single Arbitrator.
- 14:03 The single Arbitrator, unless otherwise agreed upon by the Parties, shall be selected on a rotating basis from an agreed upon list of Arbitrators. In the event that the Arbitrator selected is unable to hear the grievance within sixty (60) calendar days after the grievance has been referred, the grievance will be referred to the next Arbitrator in line.

Arbitration Expenses

- 14:04 Each Party shall bear the expenses of its own nominee to an Arbitration Board and the Parties shall jointly and equally bear the fees and expenses of the Chairperson, or single Arbitrator as the case may be.

Authority of the Arbitration Board or Arbitrator

- 14:05 In the event a Board of Arbitration or single Arbitrator deals with a matter relating to discharge, suspension or disciplinary action, then the board or single Arbitrator has the authority to reinstate an employee with or without compensation for wages and any other benefits lost, or to make any other award it may deem just and reasonable which would be consistent with the terms of the Agreement.

General Authority of the Arbitration Board or Single Arbitrator

- 14:06 Any Board of Arbitration or single Arbitrator shall not have any authority to make any decision which is inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, nor to add to or amend any of the terms of this Agreement. The jurisdiction of the Arbitration Board or single Arbitrator shall be strictly confined to dealing with the issue in dispute within the confines of the Agreement between the Parties and the type of relief sought as outlined in the notice of intention to proceed to arbitration. The decision of the Board of Arbitration or single Arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the Parties. The decision shall be unanimous or one reached by a majority of the members of the board; provided, however, that if there is no majority decision of the board, then the decision of the Chairperson shall constitute the final and binding decision of the board.

ARTICLE 15: TIME LIMITS - DAYS EXCLUDED

15:01 Saturdays, Sundays and holidays will not be counted in determining the time within which any action is to be taken or completed under the grievance or arbitration procedures.

Time limits set forth in the grievance or arbitration procedures may be extended by mutual agreement in writing between the Parties hereto.

ARTICLE 16: PROBATIONARY EMPLOYEES

- (a) Newly hired Full-Time employees will be considered as probationary employees until they have worked for a total of six (6) calendar months for the Employer.
- (b) Newly hired Part-Time employees will be considered as probationary employees until they have worked a total of six hundred and ninety-seven (697) hours or nine (9) calendar months (whichever comes first) for the Employer.
- (c) In the case where a term or temporary position is re-posted as a regular Full Time or Part Time position in the Bargaining Unit and the same incumbent is hired for that position, time worked in the term or temporary position shall count towards the probationary period, seniority and placement on the steps of the wage schedule.
- (d) For clarity, the probationary period is not the same as the trial period set out in Article 24:02.

16:02 During the probationary period, employees shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of this Agreement, except with respect to discharge. The Employer may discharge an employee at any time during the probationary period at the sole discretion of the Employer. In the event an employee is discharged, the employee shall be entitled to submit a grievance under Article 12:01 of the Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 17: SENIORITY

17:01 Seniority is defined as the length of service in the Full-Time and Part-Time Bargaining Unit.

Employees from outside the Bargaining Unit who voluntarily transfer to positions covered by this Bargaining Unit shall acquire seniority from the date of hire into the Bargaining Unit.

Employees whose positions become Bargaining Unit positions due to organizational change shall be considered to have seniority in the Bargaining Unit from the date of last hire into the University of Toronto.

17:02 A Full-Time employee will be on probation and will not acquire seniority until after the employee has worked for a total of six (6) calendar months in the Bargaining Unit. A Part-Time employee will be on probation and will not acquire seniority until after the employee has worked a total of six hundred and ninety-seven (697) hours or nine (9) calendar months (whichever comes first) for the Employer. A Part-Time employee accumulates seniority at the rate of one (1) year's credit for every one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three (1,863) hours. Seniority shall commence from the date of original hire, provided there has been no break in full-time or regular part-time service. Where there has been a break in full-time or regular part-time service, seniority shall commence from the date of last hire.

Loss / No Loss of Seniority

- 17:03 An employee shall lose all seniority if the employee voluntarily quits the employ of the Employer; is justifiably discharged; has been laid off for more than twelve (12) consecutive months; and following a layoff, fails to advise the Employer within five (5) days of receipt of notification by registered mail to return to work of the employee's intention to return, or fails to report for work on the date and at the time specified in the said notice.
- 17:04 The selection or appointment of an employee to a supervisory position or any other position not covered by this Agreement is at the Employer's discretion.
- 17:05 If an employee is transferred or promoted to an acting or temporary position outside of the Bargaining Unit, the employee shall retain seniority acquired at the date of leaving the unit, and will continue to accumulate seniority if employed in a position related to the Bargaining Unit.

Seniority List

- 17:06 The Employer shall maintain a seniority list showing the employee's first and last name, classification, and the date upon which each employee's service commenced. Up-to-date seniority lists shall be sent to the Union and posted on bulletin boards each September.

ARTICLE 18: LAYOFF AND RECALL

- 18:01 The Parties recognize that job security increases in proportion to the length of service with the Employer. In the event of a reduction in work or in the workforce, the Employer agrees that employees shall be laid off in the reverse order of their seniority insofar as it is practicable to do so, providing other qualifications are relatively equal. When an employee is laid off, they shall have the option of displacing another employee with lesser seniority in the same or lower job classification providing they are qualified to perform the normal requirements of the job satisfactorily and have more seniority than the employee to be displaced. The displaced person shall have the option of displacing another employee with lesser seniority in the same or lower job classification providing they are qualified to perform the normal requirements of the job satisfactorily and has more seniority than the employee to be displaced. The second displaced person has the option of displacing the least senior employee in the same classification or the least senior employee in a lower classification providing they are qualified to perform the normal requirements of the job satisfactorily and has more seniority than the employee to be displaced.

For clarity, the normal requirements of the job include the percent FTE of the job, so an employee who is displacing another employee must be willing and able to accept the percent FTE of the position/employee being displaced.

The intention to exercise this right and the specific details of the intended displacement must be declared by the initial person laid off within ten (10) days of notification of layoff by the Employer; the intention to exercise this right and specific details of the intended displacement(s) must be declared by the first and second displaced persons, if any, within ten (10) days of notification of displacement. No further displacement will take place as a result of the initial layoff and any resulting displacements.

It is understood that when an employee exercises the option to displace an employee performing a job at a lower classification, they shall be paid at the rate of the lower classification.

Employees shall be recalled to work in order of their seniority.

Cancellation of Recall Rights

- 18:02 Recall rights shall be terminated on the cancellation of an employee's seniority.

Notification of Change of Address

18:03 It shall be the duty of the employee to notify the Employer promptly of any change of address. If an employee should fail to do so, the Employer will not be responsible for failure of official notices to reach the employee.

Temporary Layoff Notice

18:04 The Employer shall notify employees who are to be laid off ten (10) working days before the layoff is effective. If the employee to be laid off has not had the opportunity to work ten (10) full days after notice of layoff, the employee shall be paid in lieu of that part of ten (10) days during which work was not available.

Indefinite Layoff Notice

18:05 The Employer shall notify employees who are to be permanently laid off in accordance with the following schedule:

Up to four (4) years of service 4 weeks

More than four (4) years of service 1 week for each year of service to a maximum of 26 weeks

If an employee to be laid off has not had the opportunity to work the number of days as outlined in the schedule, the employee shall be paid in lieu of that part of the notice required in the schedule for which work was not available.

Union President and Chief Union Steward

18:06 The Employer agrees that in the event of a layoff, the President of CUPE, Local 1230, if employed by the Library, and the Chief Union Steward of the Library shall be the last employees laid off during their term of office.

Notification

18:07 In the event of layoffs, the Employer will arrange to set up a liaison between the laid-off employees, Union Representatives and the Library Manager Human Resources.

18:08 The Union will be notified in advance of the names of any employees slated for lay off and the expected duration of the same.

ARTICLE 19: LEAVES OF ABSENCE

General

19:01 Subject to the written approval of the Library Manager Human Resources, any employee may be granted a leave of absence without pay because of personal illness or for valid personal reasons. All applications for leave of absence must be made in writing and submitted to the Library Manager Human Resources. Any extension of a leave of absence must also be applied for and granted in writing.

Conventions and Seminars

19:02 Subject to the approval of the Library Manager Human Resources and upon written request submitted at least fourteen (14) days in advance, leave of absence without pay or loss of seniority shall be granted to not more than four (4) employees at any one time, who may be elected or selected by Local 1230 to attend any authorized Labour Convention or Educational Seminar. Such leave of absence is to be confined to the actual duration of the Convention or Educational Seminar and the necessary traveling time. Such leave shall not exceed ten (10) working days per year for each employee to whom such leave is granted.

Pregnancy Leave

- (a) Pregnancy leave of absence must be applied for and granted in writing. An employee who will have completed thirteen (13) weeks of service with the University prior to the probable date of delivery, and presents to the Department or Division Head a doctor's certificate or certificate from a midwife stating that the employee is pregnant and the probable date of delivery, is entitled to a pregnancy leave of absence of seventeen (17) weeks.
- (b) For employees with one (1) year of service or more the University will pay ninety-five (95) percent of weekly salary during the one (1) week waiting period for Employment Insurance pregnancy benefits, and, for the next fifteen (15) weeks, will pay the difference between the weekly Employment Insurance benefits and ninety-five (95) percent of weekly salary, provided that the employee provides proof that the employee has applied for and is receiving Employment Insurance benefits and the amount of those benefits. For Employees with less than one (1) year of service, the University will pay the above-noted top-up prorated according to the percentage of a whole year and FTE that the employee worked before the first day of the leave, provided that the employee provides proof that the employee has applied for and is receiving Employment Insurance benefits and the amount of those benefits.

The weekly top-up payment will be calculated using the weekly EI benefit that would be payable to the employee (i.e. 55%) without regard to any election by the employee to receive a lower EI benefit spread over a longer period of time as may be permitted under the Employment Insurance Act. In no event will the top-up payment exceed the difference between 95% of the employee's actual weekly rate of pay in effect on the last day worked prior to the commencement of the leave and the sum of the employee's EI benefit calculated without regard to any election by the employee to receive a lower EI benefit spread over a longer period of time as may be permitted under the Employment Insurance Act.

- (c) Pregnancy leave of absence shall commence at the employee's discretion, up to seventeen (17) weeks before the expected date of delivery, upon a minimum of two (2) weeks' notice being given to the University. If pregnancy-related complications force the employee to stop work before the employee has arranged pregnancy leave, the employee has two (2) weeks from that date to give the University written notice of the date the pregnancy leave began (e.g., if the child has been born) or when the leave is to begin, with a medical certificate confirming the circumstances and the expected or actual date of birth. In such case the employee will be entitled to utilize sick leave in accordance with Article 22 until the actual birth of the baby, the expected date of delivery, or the date the employee intended to start pregnancy leave as stated in the employee's written notice, whichever comes first. An employee must give two (2) weeks' notice of any change of the commencement of the pregnancy leave.
- (d) If the employee has been on pregnancy leave for seventeen (17) weeks but the child has not yet been born, the pregnancy leave will end when the baby is born and the employee will be entitled to take a parental leave immediately after the birth. If an employee on pregnancy leave wishes to change the date of the return to work to an earlier date, the employee must give the University four (4) weeks' written notice of the date on which the employee intends to return. If the employee wishes to change the date of return to a later date (but subject to the rules concerning the maximum length of leave), the employee must give the University four (4) weeks' written notice before the date the leave was to end.
- (e) In the case of an employee on a sessional appointment, or whose employment is limited to a defined term, any pregnancy leave will be limited to and not extend beyond the period of time remaining in the session or defined term.

- (f) Seniority, vacation, benefits, and pensionable service continue during an employee's pregnancy leave, provided the employee fulfills any requirements for said continuation. Eligibility for step and negotiated wage increases also continue during the period of an employee's pregnancy leave.

Primary Caregiver and Adoption Leave

- a) Primary Caregiver Leave is available to a parent, other than a birth parent, who has the primary responsibility for the care of a child during the thirty-seven (37) weeks immediately following:
- i) the birth of a child, or
 - ii) the coming of a child into the custody, care, and control of a parent for the first or such shorter or longer period as is required under the Employment Standards Act, 2000 as amended from time to time.

Primary Caregiver Leave must be applied for and granted in writing with a minimum of two (2) weeks' notice and is available to an employee who will have completed thirteen (13) weeks of service prior to the date of application.

- b) An employee making such an application must confirm in writing that the employee will in fact have the primary responsibility for the care of the child during the period of the leave applied for (e.g., for a birth parent's partner or same-sex parent, because the birth parent is unavailable or has returned to work; for an adoptive parent, because the parent will be the primary caregiver for some period of time after the child comes into the custody, care, and control of an adoptive parent for the first time).
- c) In the case of an adoption, the Primary Caregiver Leave may be split between two parents.
- d) For employees with one (1) year of service or more the University will pay ninety-five (95) percent of weekly salary during the one (1) week waiting period for Employment Insurance benefits, and, for the next sixteen (16) weeks, will pay the difference between Employment Insurance parental benefits and ninety-five (95) percent of weekly salary, provided that the employee provides proof that the employee has applied for and is receiving Employment Insurance parental benefits and the amount of those benefits. For employees with less than one (1) year of service, the University will pay the above noted top-up pro-rated according to the percentage of a whole year and FTE that the employee worked before the first day of the leave, provided that the employee provides proof that the employee has applied for and is receiving Employment Insurance parental benefits and the amount of those benefits. In the case of an adoption, the Primary Caregiver Leave shall not apply to adoptions which arise through the blending of families.
- e) In the case of an employee on a sessional appointment or whose employment is limited to a defined term, any Primary Caregiver Leave will be limited to and not extend beyond the period of time remaining in the session or defined term.
- f) Seniority, vacation, benefits, and pensionable service continue during an employee's Primary Caregiver Leave, provided the employee fulfills any requirements for said continuation. Eligibility for step and negotiated wage increase also continue during the period of an employee's Primary Caregiver leave.
- g) The weekly top-up payment under paragraph (d) will be calculated using the weekly EI benefit that would be payable to the employee (i.e. 55%) without regard to any election by the employee to receive a lower EI benefit spread over a longer period of time as may be permitted under the Employment Insurance Act. In no event will the top-up payment exceed the difference between 95% of the employee's actual weekly rate of pay in effect on the last day worked prior to the commencement of the leave and the sum of the employee's EI benefit calculated without regard to any election by the employee to receive a lower EI benefit spread over a longer period of time as may be permitted under the Employment Insurance Act.

Parental Leave

- a) An employee who is a parent of a child and who has been employed with the University for at least thirteen (13) weeks is entitled to a parental leave following the birth of the child or the coming of the child into a parent's custody, care and control for the first time. Both parents will be eligible to take a parental leave as follows:
 - i) up to thirty-five (35) weeks of parental leave for employees who take pregnancy leave;
 - ii) up to thirty-seven (37) weeks of parental leave for all other new parents; or
 - iii) such shorter or longer period of time as might be required under the Employment Standards Act, 2000 from time to time.

- b) For employees who take pregnancy leave, parental leave commences when the employee's pregnancy leave ends or when the baby first comes into custody, care, and control of the birth parent. For all other new parents, parental leave must commence within fifty-two (52) weeks after the birth or after the child first comes into the custody care, and control of a parent or such other time as may be specified under the Employment Standards Act, 2000 from time to time. This provision is not available to employees who have taken Primary Caregiver/Adoption Leave.

- c) For employees with one (1) year of service or more who provide the University with proof that they have applied for and are in receipt of Employment Insurance parental benefits and the amount of those benefits, the University will provide the following:
 - (i) For an employee who has taken pregnancy leave, the difference between Employment Insurance parental benefits and ninety-five (95) percent of salary for ten (10) weeks;
 - (ii) For an employee who takes parental leave for which a one (1) week waiting period has already been served in respect of the same child, the difference between Employment Insurance parental benefits and ninety-five (95) percent of salary for ten (10) weeks;
 - (iii) For an employee who takes parental leave and is required to serve a one (1) week waiting period, ninety-five (95) percent of salary during the one (1) week waiting period, and the difference between Employment Insurance parental benefits and ninety-five (95) percent of salary for eight (8) weeks;
 - (iv) The weekly top-up payment will be calculated using the weekly EI benefit that would be payable to the employee (i.e. 55%) without regard to any election by the employee to receive a lower EI benefit spread over a longer period of time as may be permitted under the Employment Insurance Act. In no event will the top-up payment exceed the difference between 95% of the employee's actual weekly rate of pay in effect on the last day worked prior to the commencement of the leave and the sum of the employee's EI benefit calculated without regard to any election by the employee to receive a lower EI benefit spread over a longer period of time as may be permitted under the Employment Insurance Act.

- d) An employee who is entitled to a parental leave is required to give the University two (2) weeks' written notice prior to the commencement of the leave. If the employee does not specify when the leave will end, it will be assumed that the employee wishes to take the maximum leave in accordance with Article 19.05(a) (i) or (ii) as applicable.

- e) An employee who have given notice to begin parental leave may change the notice to an earlier date by giving at least two (2) weeks' notice before the earlier date, or to a later date by giving two (2) weeks' notice before the leave was to begin.
- f) If the employee stops work because the child has arrived earlier than expected, the employee has two (2) weeks from that date to give the University written notice of the employee's intent to take the parental leave.
- g) If an employee on parental leave wishes to change the date of their return to work to an earlier date, the employee must give the University four (4) weeks' written notice of the date on which the employee intends to return.

- i) Seniority, vacation, benefits, and pensionable service continue during an employee's parental leave, provided the employee fulfills any requirements for said continuation. Eligibility for step and negotiated wage increase also continue during the period of an employee's parental leave.

Employees working on a Part-Time, term or temporary basis will be eligible for paid personal leave of absence on a pro-rated basis. Employees shall be permitted to use paid personal leave of absence for the observance of religious holidays of their faith which fall on a day in which they would normally be required to work.

Such leave of absence shall not accrue from one year to another if not used in that year.

Each application for leave of absence must be made in writing, shall indicate the reason for the application therefor, and must be submitted to the employee's supervisor at least five (5) days in advance. In the event of an emergency, the requirement to provide five (5) days advance notice shall be waived, however the employee in applying for emergency paid personal leave of absence shall provide an explanation as to the nature of the emergency.

Employees will not be allowed to use personal leave of absence for purposes of extending vacations or extending a paid holiday. Requests for the observance of religious holidays adjacent to a statutory or paid holiday and/or vacation shall be granted.

Paid Personal Leave may not be taken in units of less than one (1) hour.

Health Care Appointments

19:09 Where an employee cannot schedule a health care appointment outside of the employee's regular working hours, the employee will give as much advanced notice as possible, and will be given time off with pay necessary to attend the appointment up to seven (7) hours per year, pro-rated for employees working on a term or temporary basis and for Part-time employees based on appointment status as a percentage of full time hours. In such cases, the employee will attempt to schedule the appointment so as to minimize disruption to the employee's work day. Such leave may not be taken in units of less than one (1) hour.

A request by an employee to attend regularly occurring health care appointments, such as an ongoing treatment regimen, which cannot be scheduled outside the employee's regular working hours, may be treated by the University as a request for accommodation and treated accordingly, as appropriate.

President of the Union Local

- (a) Where an employee is elected or selected to the office of the President of CUPE, Local 1230, they may request a fifty (50) percent FTE (according to a mutually agreeable regular schedule of hours) or, if part-time, then fifty (50) percent of their appointment status at time of such election or selection (according to a mutually agreeable regular schedule of hours), leave of absence at least two (2) weeks in advance in writing from the Library Manager Human Resources for a period not to exceed one (1) year. The purpose of the fifty (50) percent FTE release time is for the President to conduct union business. Subject to approval of the Library Manager Human Resources, the employee shall be granted leave of absence. Such leave shall be renewed each year, on request, during the employee's term of office. On the expiration of the said leave, upon written request the Library Manager Human Resources, which must be submitted at least two (2) weeks prior to said termination, the employee shall be returned either to the employee's former position, or to a position in a classification comparable to that in which the employee was employed before taking the office, if such is available, or to such other position as may be determined by the Library Manager Human Resources as being suitable. The above-described leave of absence shall be limited to one (1) employee at any one time during the term of this agreement.
- (b) Where an employee of the University of Toronto is elected or selected to the office of the President of CUPE, Local 1230, and is granted a fifty (50) percent FTE or, if part-time, then fifty (50) percent of their appointment status at time of such election or selection, leave of absence in accordance with Article 19:10 (a), the Employer shall continue to pay the officer during the leave of absence at their regular wage rate in the classification in which they are employed. The employee benefits in which the employee was enrolled immediately prior to commencing said leave of absence, shall continue at the same level.

All premiums must be paid in advance and in accordance with the rules established by the Human Resources Department.

Seniority During Leave of Absence

19:13 Employees who have been granted leave of absence shall retain their seniority acquired, but shall not continue to acquire seniority during the leave of absence where:

An employee who has been granted sixty (60) calendar days or more leave of absence for valid personal reasons in accordance with and pursuant to Article 19:01 of the Agreement; or

Compassionate Care Leave

19:14 The University will grant compassionate care leave to employees who take a leave of absence under the Family Medical Leave provisions of the Employment Standards Act. For employees with one (1) year of service or more the University will pay up to the equivalent of the weekly Employment Insurance benefit for which the employee is qualified for the one (1) week waiting period provided that the employee applies for and receives Employment Insurance compassionate care benefits.

ARTICLE 20: BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

20:01 In the event of a death in the immediate family, an employee will be granted upon request up to a maximum of five (5) working days leave without loss of regular pay in respect to such death. Such leave need not be taken consecutively, as long as the leave is genuinely taken in respect to the death. An employee may use paid personal leave, if available, to supplement the leave should extra time be required.

“Immediate family” shall mean spouse (including same-sex partner, common-law or through marriage), father, mother, son, daughter, brother, sister, father-in-law, mother-in-law, sister-in-law, brother-in-law, daughter-in-law, son-in-law, grandchild, grandparent, aunt, uncle, niece, and nephew, first cousin, legal guardian and legal ward, or for the death of a person whose relationship is not defined above, the impact of which is comparable to that of the immediate family (e.g. a close friend).

ARTICLE 21: JURY DUTY OR CROWN WITNESS LEAVE

21:01 The Employer shall continue payment of full salary to any employee who is required for jury duty or crown witness service, provided the employee reports for work when not required for such duty.

ARTICLE 22: SICK LEAVE

Definition

22:01 Sick leave is defined as absence because of the employee's illness or injury, not incurred in the performance of regular duties, or absence because of quarantine through exposure to contagious disease, or because of an accident for which compensation under the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act is not payable. The purpose of the Sick Leave Plan is to provide against loss of earnings for employees who are prevented by illness or injury from performing their duties.

Basis of Leave

22:02 A full-time salaried employee, after the employee has worked for a total of sixty (60) days for the Employer, and a Regular Part-Time employee who holds an appointment of twenty five (25) percent or more of a Full-Time appointment, upon the completion of the Regular Part-time probationary period, shall be eligible to be granted sick leave with pay for periods up to fifteen (15) weeks during unavoidable absence due to illness or injury not compensable under the provisions of the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act. Regular rate of pay for Part-Time employees equals the hourly rate multiplied by the number of hours an employee is regularly scheduled to work each day.

Required to Call In

22:03 When an employee is unable to report to work due to illness or injury, the supervisor must be notified promptly and informed as early as possible of the probable date when that employee is able to return to work. It is the responsibility of the employee to maintain communication with the supervisor with respect to the matter of the probable date of return to work by the employee.

Physician's Certificate

22:04 An employee, with prior written notification, may be required by the employee's supervisor to provide a doctor's certificate certifying that the employee is unable to carry out the employee's normal duties due to illness or injury. For clarity, prior to written notification shall mean any time prior to the employee's return to work. The Employer will only accept original medical certificates verified by a legally qualified and licensed medical practitioner that indicates first day of illness or injury, if known, first treatment date, and the expected return to work date, if known. The employee may with notice to the immediate supervisor, provide a faxed or scanned copy of the medical certificate in advance of the employee's return to work. The original copy of the said certificate must be provided immediately upon the employee's return to work.

22:05 A record of all used sick leave shall be kept by the Employer.

Misuse of Sick Leave

EDUCATIONAL ASSISTANCE POLICY

INTRODUCTION

In keeping with its policy objective to provide staff members with opportunities for personal development and establish a working environment that will encourage them to develop their abilities, the University has designed this practice on Educational Assistance. Its provisions define the extent to which the University will financially assist staff to further their formal education.

TERMS OF REFERENCE

Qualifying staff members referred to below are those staff who are eligible in terms of University service (described under ELIGIBILITY) and have academic acceptability by the Faculty, School, Centre, etc., from where the course is to be taken and the approval of the Department Head before beginning the course as described under PROCEDURES.

ELIGIBILITY

Bargaining Unit employees whether Full-Time, Part-Time of twenty-five (25) percent or more, or sessionals are eligible. In the case of Part-Time staff members for the first three years' continuous service, the funding is prorated in accordance with the Part-Time appointment.

PROVISIONS

1. One hundred (100%) percent Tuition Waived

Tuition fees are waived for a qualifying staff member taking:

- a) a University of Toronto degree course, up to and including the Master's level. For undergraduate courses, the maximum tuition waiver shall be limited to three (3) full courses during the Fall/Winter session, and one (1) full course during the Summer session and reimbursement will be limited to the equivalent general Arts & Science course tuition fee. For Master's level programmes the tuition waiver shall be limited to the part-time programme fee or three thousand ($3,000) dollars per academic year, whichever is less. The University will also waive the balance of degree fee, to the lesser of the equivalent remaining programme fee or three thousand ($3,000) dollars per year, so long as the employee has already received a tuition waiver under this policy; or
- b) a University of Toronto course taken as part of the "academic bridging" programme, or
- c) a University of Toronto course taken as a "special student"; or
- d) a diploma or certificate programme offered through Woodsworth College or other University of Toronto academic divisions, for which students are registered as University of Toronto students and receive diploma at Convocation in accordance with the University Policy on Diploma and Certificate Programmes. The maximum tuition waiver shall be limited to three (3) full courses during the Fall/Winter session, and one (1) full course during the summer session and reimbursement will be limited to the equivalent general Arts & Science course tuition fee.
- e) courses offered by the School of Continuing Studies that are work or job related, up to a maximum of seven hundred and fifty ($750) dollars per course, and personal interest courses for which a taxable benefit is assessed up to a maximum of three hundred and fifty ($350) dollars per course, with a combined maximum of four (4) courses per academic year.

Courses should be taken outside of normal working hours. However, if the course is not otherwise available, one such course at a time may be taken during normal working hours provided the approval of the Department Head is obtained and alternative work arrangements are made.

2. Fifty (50%) percent Tuition Reimbursed

Fifty (50%) percent of tuition fees will be reimbursed to a qualifying staff member who shows successful completion of a job-related course given at a recognized educational institution (other than those in 1. above). Such courses should be taken on the staff member's own time, after normal working hours and must be either:

1. Individual skill improvement courses which are related to the staff member's present job or to jobs in the same field to which the staff member might logically aspire.
2. Courses of study leading to undergraduate certificates, diplomas or degrees offered at recognized educational institutions. Such courses must either be an asset to the staff member in the performance of their present job or directly related to their potential career. Individual courses, even though unrelated, will qualify provided they are a part of an eligible certificate, diploma or degree program.

LETTER OF INTENT: TUITION WAIVER FOR DEPENDANTS

December 07, 2017

Ms. Leanne MacMillan
National Representative
Canadian Union of Public Employees, Local 1230
80 Commerce Valley Drive East
Markham, Ontario
L3T 0B2

Dear Ms. MacMillan,

The University agrees that dependants of employees in the Full-Time and Part-Time Bargaining Unit shall be entitled to the benefits of the Tuition Waiver for Dependants Policy attached hereto. It is agreed that the University may amend the aforesaid Policy from time to time.

Yours truly,

Alexander Brat
Executive Director, Labour Relations

TUITION WAIVER FOR DEPENDANTS POLICY

INTRODUCTION

In order to assist staff members who have dependants or a spouse who wish to pursue university studies, toward their first undergraduate degree or certificate, the University will extend a waiver of the academic tuition fee for specific University of Toronto programmes.

TERMS OF REFERENCE

An eligible spouse or dependant must have met the admission requirements for the qualifying programme and have followed the normal procedures regarding application for admission and registration before application is made for tuition waiver.

For the purposes of this policy:

- Dependant shall mean the natural, legally adopted, step or foster child of the employee who is not engaged in active employment and is dependent on the employee or employee's spouse for financial support and is under the age of twenty five (25);
- Spouse shall mean spouse as defined in the Ontario Human Rights Code as amended by the Spousal Relationship Statute Law Amendment Act, 2005;
- Academic tuition fee by definition excludes application, registration, service, examination and other incidental fees.

ELIGIBILITY

This benefit is available to:

- Staff members of the University, Full-time or Part-time of twenty-five (25%) percent or more, or sessionals. In the case of Part-Time staff members, the benefit will be pro-rated in accordance with the part-time appointment.
- Staff members on approved leave of absence who have a commitment to return to their job, who are maintaining enrollment in all benefits programs.
- Dependents, spouse or partner proceeding towards a degree or first certificate in qualifying programmes (not Special Students). Qualifying programs are described under PROVISIONS (below).

PROVISIONS

Eligible dependants will have their academic tuition fee waived for each academic year of the programme until the degree is awarded.

The academic tuition fee waiver is applicable to programmes which lead to a first undergraduate degree or certificate and which do not require prior undergraduate preparation since admission is normally gained directly from high school to the program of study. In cases where the program requires undergraduate preparation, only the undergraduate courses taken as part of the preparation are eligible.

For clarity, the fee waiver is applicable to the Transitional Year Programme and the Academic Bridging Programme.

Programmes in the following areas are also not eligible:

Royal Conservatory of Music

School of Continuing Studies

Woodsworth College Diplomas

Where a student receives a scholarship which provides for the payment of fees, the terms of the scholarship will apply prior to any waiver of tuition under this policy.

Questions concerning this policy should be directed to the appropriate local Human Resources Department.

The value of the tuition waiver under this provision is a taxable benefit to the employee.

LETTER OF AGREEMENT: IMPACT OF EMPLOYMENT INSURANCE LEGISLATIVE CHANGES

December 07, 2017

Ms. Leanne MacMillan
National Representative
Canadian Union of Public Employees, Local 1230
80 Commerce Valley Drive East
Markham, Ontario
L3T 0B2

Dear Ms. MacMillan,

During the 2017 round of collective bargaining, the parties discussed amendments to the Employment Insurance (EI) Act reducing the waiting period to receive benefits under the EI Act from two weeks to one week for pregnancy and parental leaves, as well as the impact of that reduction on the payments made by the University to employees taking pregnancy, parental, and primary caregiver leaves under the Collective Agreement.

Under the terms of the Collective Agreement in place up to the current round of negotiations, the University compensated employees taking pregnancy leave, parental leave, and primary caregiver leave at 95 per cent of their weekly salary for the two week waiting period for pregnancy or parental leave benefits. Therefore, the legislative changes result in the elimination of one week of leave with 95 per cent of salary for such employees.

The parties agree that an employee who is entitled to and provided with salary during the one week waiting period and top up pursuant to Articles 19:03(b), 19:04(d) or 19:05(c), will receive one paid week of leave ("Parental Transition Week") immediately following the end of their EI pregnancy or parental leave (the end of their combined leave for employees who take both pregnancy and parental leave). This Parental Transition Week will be in addition to the leave entitlements set out in Articles 19:03(a), 19:04(a) and/or 19:05(a).

During the Parental Transition Week, employees will be paid 100 per cent of their weekly salary, whereas the eliminated week during the EI waiting period had been compensated at 95 per cent.

Yours truly,

Alex Brat
Executive Director, Labour Relations

APPENDIX C: GUIDELINES FOR FLEXIBLE HOURS

BACKGROUND

Flexible hours is a system that permits employees to obtain a degree of personal freedom in their working hours within certain limits and always with the stipulation that the requirements of the job be fulfilled. Where it is appropriate, staff members may start and stop work at any time during the flexible period (as established by the department) at the beginning and the end of the working day. Depending on work requirements or personal preference, the employee decides when to start and stop work each day. Staff members are required to be present when scheduled or during a "core period" (as established by the department), which represents the minimum number of hours employees are expected to work each day. Employees must work a certain number of hours in a given period (as established by the department). Where the given period is two weeks or longer, an employee may accumulate "credit" hours or "debit" hours, which may be carried over to the next accounting period and either used in time off (credits) or made up (debits).

The concept as a policy has been accepted by the Canadian Union of Public Employees, Local 1230, Full-Time and Part-Time Bargaining Unit and the University.

- (1) The work of the department must not be adversely affected.
- (2) The department must be open for service in its normal work period.
- (3) Participation by staff members is voluntary.
- (4) Full-Time employees will normally work a 5-day week (i.e., the University is not adopting a compressed work week of four (4) or four and a half ($4^{1/2}$) days) and employees may not take time off work in half-day or full-day increments in accordance with these Guidelines for Flexible Hours

These provisions form the basis for the following guidelines. These guidelines will be reviewed by the Employer and the Union after one (1) year of operation.

GUIDELINES

1. Personnel Included

All permanent Full and Part-Time employees may participate. New employees in the probationary period may vary starting and stopping times, subject to training requirements, but must work the standard number of hours per day without accumulating credit time or debit time. Casual employees are excluded. Those staff who choose not to participate will work standard hours.

2. Core Time

Each employee must be present at the employee's position during the established core period, or when assigned by schedule in individual areas.

3. Accounting Time

A 4-week accounting period will be used. Since standard hours of work are seven and one-quarter ($7^{1/4}$) hours per day (six and three-quarters ($6^{3/4}$) hours in July and August), five (5) days per week, the total number of hours worked in one accounting period will be one hundred and forty-five (145) hours (one hundred and thirty-five (135) hours in July and August). Public service departments will follow established arrangements for nights and weekends. This will be pro-rated to appointment status as required for Part-Time employees.

4. Recording Time

Hours of work must be recorded. This is done by the use of time-recording equipment or a manually kept record.

5. Meal Break

This may not be less than thirty (30) minutes. It may be as long as two (2) hours, depending on the demands of work to be done. Time needed in excess of this will be at the discretion of the supervisor.

6. Rest Periods

The policy in force is as follows:

Collective Agreement – "All employees shall be entitled to a fifteen (15) minute rest period both in the first half and second half of the shift."

7. Credits and Debits

These are calculated at the end of the accounting period when the number of hours worked varies from the required number of hours to be worked. No one can have a credit of more than fifteen (15) hours, or a debit of more than ten (10) hours, at the end of a given accounting period. Credit hours in excess of 15 hours will be forfeit. Debit hours in excess of ten (10) hours for two (2) consecutive accounting periods will be considered as absence without pay. If a debit in excess of ten (10) hours continues for a third consecutive accounting period, the person should be removed from the privilege of flexible hours.

Credit hours being used may not be taken during core hours or when assigned by schedule except with the prior approval of one's supervisor. Credit hours can be used during the following accounting period by working shorter daily hours outside of the core or scheduled periods, having informed one's supervisor.

8. Length of Working Day

Depending on the nature of the work, the employee should work only as long as the employee can work effectively. Ideally, this should not exceed eight (8) hours per day, but it is recognized that some circumstances may allow longer periods of work without impairing effectiveness. In such circumstances, the employee is required to obtain their supervisor's approval prior to working in excess of eight (8) hours per day. Such circumstances shall not attract overtime or premium pay.

9. Overtime

The policy in force is:

Collective Agreement – Summarized: Authorized overtime shall be paid at the rate of time and one-half the regular rate of wages. Authorized overtime on Sundays shall be paid at the rate of two (2) times the regular rate.

An employee may not claim overtime pay for hours worked voluntarily in excess of the required number of hours

10. Vacation, Sickness, Paid Personal Leave

Time away from work for these categories will be considered as hours worked (i.e., seven and one-quarter ($7\frac{1}{4}$) hours per day; six and three-quarters ($6\frac{3}{4}$) hours in July and August), and must be reported according to standard procedures so that credit may be obtained. Illness of less than a day will be credited on the basis of the length of the standard working day (e.g., an employee starting work at 9:30 a.m. and going home at 1:00 p.m. will be credited with a further three and three-quarters ($3\frac{3}{4}$) hours to total seven and one-quarter ($7\frac{1}{4}$) hours; three and one-quarter ($3\frac{1}{4}$) hours to total six and three-quarters ($6\frac{3}{4}$) in July and August).

All employees should notify supervisors of unplanned absences in accordance with Article 22:03 of the Collective Agreement.

11. Absence Without Pay

The present policies applicable to leave of absence without pay will apply. Such time must be recorded as hours worked so that the employee does not accumulate debits for an approved leave of absence

12. Work Outside the Usual Working Area

If an employee is working in the usual area for only part of the day, normal procedures for recording hours must be observed. Credit for the remaining time will be agreed on with the immediate supervisor. Where there is no attendance at all in the usual area, a claim for credit will be made.

13. Responsibility for Compiling Balance Sheets

Balance sheets are compiled within the individual departments by the person responsible for keeping Human Resources records.

14. Terminating or Transferring Employees

Terminating employees must balance any debit or credit hours before leaving. Any credit not taken will be forfeited. Any debit will be deducted from the employee's final pay. Wherever possible, transferring employees are to balance their debit/credit hours before moving to a new department.

15. Misuse of Flexible Hours

If misuse is persistent, the employee will be denied the privilege of flexible hours, after suitable warnings have been issued.

APPENDIX D: EMPLOYEE CHILD-CARE BENEFIT PLAN

Members with a dependent eligible child under the age of seven will be eligible for reimbursement of child-care expenses as follows:

- (a) The maximum half-day reimbursement will be $10.00 per day. A half-day is defined as a minimum of four (4) hours to a maximum of six (6) hours of care, or where the parent is being charged a half-day rate by the child care provider.
- (b) The maximum full-day reimbursement will be $20.00 per day. A full-day rate is defined as six (6) or more hours of care, or where the parent is being charged a full-day rate.
- (c) Reimbursement is limited to fifty percent (50%) of the lesser of (i) the amount actually paid; and (ii) the usual and customary amount charged by the service provider for the same child care services. Between January 1 and February 1, 2010, and between January 1 and February 1 of subsequent calendar years, members must provide to the University, in a single package, detailed receipts substantiating the child care expenses in respect of which reimbursement is sought for the previous calendar year along with proof of payment (e.g., credit card receipt, front and back of cancelled cheque, or a validated receipt). Reimbursement in respect of a calendar year shall be made in one lump sum cash payment, less applicable withholdings, if any.
- (d) Reimbursement will be made only for child care expenses (as defined in the ITA) incurred by the Member. The University makes no representations as to whether a deduction from income is available under the ITA in respect of any amounts paid or payable under this plan.
- (e) If both parents are eligible for reimbursement under this plan, only one shall be entitled to claim reimbursement under this plan in a calendar year.
- (f) The plan maximum of $2,000 per child will be provided annually, based on a calendar year. This amount will be pro-rated for less than Full-Time equivalent employment to a maximum of $1,000. A Member who has been appointed for less than the full calendar year shall be entitled to a pro-rated amount for that year. There are no carry-over provisions if the full $2,000 is not used in any given year.
- (g) The terms "child care expense" and "eligible child" in this plan shall have the meanings given to them in subsection 63(3) of the ITA. The term "child" shall have the extended meaning given to that term in subsection 252(1) of the ITA such that, where used in this plan, the term "child" shall include a natural, step, common-law or adopted child or ward under the age of seven.
- (h) Payments to be made by the University under this plan shall be paid solely out of the general operating monies of the University. The University shall not be required to contribute or set aside any amounts to a separate fund or account to satisfy its obligations under this plan, or otherwise secure its obligations under this plan. The value of the annual eligible claims under this plan shall not exceed $16,000. If, in a given year, the value of the eligible claims under this plan is greater than $16,000, all claims will be reimbursed on a pro-rated basis. If in a given year, the total value of the eligible claims under this plan is less than $16,000, the excess amount shall be carried forward and added to the notional value of the eligible claims for the following calendar year.

APPENDIX E: JOB EVALUATION

1. The University acknowledges the value of the work performed by members of the CUPE 1230 Full-time and Part-time Employee Bargaining Unit, and that this work has evolved and changed, as the Library has evolved and changed, and continues to do so. The University also acknowledges that the classifications assigned to Bargaining Unit jobs should be reviewed, updated and maintained on an ongoing basis to reflect significant changes that have occurred.
2. The University and the Union therefore agree to a process to revise and update job profiles and to update job evaluations using the University of Toronto Libraries Job Evaluation Plan, based on the following principles:
 - (a) It is Management's role to determine the work that is required to be done, to allocate duties and responsibilities, and to define and describe the jobs.
 - (b) It is the job that is to be defined/described, not the performance of any particular incumbent.
 - (c) Job profiles should be objective, clear, concise statements of duties and responsibilities, skills and effort required, and working conditions.
 - (d) Management will maintain and develop job profiles in light of the jobs as they are currently functioning, and as they will be needed to function in order that the University can achieve its vision of the "library of the future" as set forth in the Library's strategic planning exercise.
 - (e) The questionnaire developed and agreed upon in consultation with the Union will be maintained and utilized to gather from employees information concerning the working conditions under which the jobs are performed, as well as the physical and mental effort required of employees in the performance of their jobs.
 - (f) Job profiles are written at a high level, focusing on the job, its major duties and responsibilities, and with some flexibility, as opposed to an exhaustive list of all tasks; i.e., profiles will focus on the "what" and "why" of jobs, without a great deal of detail as to the "how."
 - (g) Job profiles will be written so as to be able to serve a number of purposes for the Library and for the Bargaining Unit members, such as for training purposes, career planning and development, posting, recruitment as well as general operational management.
 - (h) Job titles will reflect the nature and level of the work performed.
 - (i) The Union and the employee(s) in the Bargaining Unit will be provided with a copy of their job profiles for review and comment where required.
 - (j) Classification of job profiles will be based on the University of Toronto Libraries Job Evaluation Plan (version 2003) for CUPE 1230 positions.
 - (k) The number of levels of any specific function are based on actual and anticipated needs of the organization.
 - (l) Salary administration should be based on job classification and be fair and equitable and provide for internal equity within the Bargaining Unit, and in reference to jobs performing similar work throughout the University, as well as market competitiveness.
 - (m) Classification decisions will result directly in the assignment of jobs of similar value to the appropriate salary grade for that classification.
 - (n) The University may create and/or reclassify positions at its discretion, and will provide to the Union the job profile, rating sheet, pay scale and relevant rating notes. The Union may submit a formal request for reclassification, except no request can be made for an employee until such employee has been in the position for six (6) months.
 - (o) A request for reclassification by the Union may be made where the employee believes that there has been a significant change to the position such that it no longer fits within its current classification and requires the creation of a new classification or placement into another existing classification.

(p) Any increase in salary that results from a Union request for reclassification will be retroactive to the date on which the formal request for reclassification was submitted to the Manager of Library Human Resources.

(q) As a result of this process, no employee will have their wages reduced.

3. The main goal of this exercise is that the Library administration, the Union, and the employees have access to accurate, up-to-date job descriptions and classifications. While this may result in some reclassifications or the re-assignment of existing classifications to different salary grades, the objective is fairness and equity, not across-the-board reclassifications.
4. Upon receipt of a formal request for reclassification from the Union, the University agrees to provide to the Union the relevant job profile, the rating sheet and relevant rating notes for that job profile within four (4) months of the formal request being submitted. The Union will have up to one (1) month to register objections and present in writing its objections to the rating with specific reasons and the Union's recommendation.
5. Management will have up to 15 working days to respond in writing to the objections presented by the Union. Should the Union continue to disagree with the rating decision Article 11:07 will apply. In the event of a dispute, the University's classification will prevail unless, and until, an arbitrated decision is received, resulting in a different outcome.
